

Lt. Governor's State Summit on Aging
April 27, 2007
Grand Strand Senior Center
1268 21st Ave.
Myrtle Beach, SC

Morning Session: 10:00 am - 12:30 am

- A Call To Action: A national conversation with Lt. Governor André Bauer and Josefina Carbonell, Assistant Secretary for Aging
How South Carolina is positioned to give its citizens choices, control and independence as changes in national long term care policy are implemented.
- Lisa Alecxih, Vice President, The Lewin Group
Trends in long term care
- John Wren, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Management
Discussion of Aging and Disability Resource Centers, Own Your Own Future, Long Term Care Clearinghouse, Evidence-Based Disease Prevention, Community Living Initiative
- Suzanne Bostick, Disabled Elderly Health Program Group
Deficit Reduction Act initiatives/Real Choice Systems change

Lunch: 12:30 pm – 1:30 pm on site

Afternoon Session: 1:30 pm – 3:30 pm

- SC Panel Reaction - Representatives of the Continuum of Long Term Care: nursing homes, assisted living, Medicaid, Councils of Government, Area Agencies on Aging, Councils on Aging. This panel will react to the morning presentations from the perspective of how South Carolina is positioned for the new initiatives.
- Comments from the audience